Extension of Previously-Granted Interim Orders Under the Semiconductor Chip Protection Act of 1984

Agency: Patent and Trademark Office, Department of Commerce
Action: Extension of interim orders
Summary: On Nov. 18, 1987, a Notice of Initiation of Proceedings was published at 52 FR 44200, whereby the Commissioner requested comments on the extension of existing interim orders under the Semiconductor Chip Protection Act of 1984. A hearing was held on Mar. 16, 1988. To promote the development of international comity in the protection of mask works, the Commissioner extended the existing interim orders until May 31, 1988.

By Amendment 2 to Department Organization Order 10-14, the Secretary of Commerce delegated to the Assistant Secretary and Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks (hereinafter the Commissioner) the authority, under section 914 of the Semiconductor Chip Protection Act of 1984 (SCPA), 17 U.S.C. 914, to make findings and issue orders for interim protection of semiconductor mask works produced in foreign countries. Pursuant to the Semiconductor Chip Protection Act Extension of 1987, P.L. 100-159, the Commissioner's authority to grant interim protection orders was extended until July 1, 1991.

Interim orders have been issued, and extended, in favor of mask works produced in eighteen (18) countries —Japan, Australia, Sweden, Switzerland, Finland, Canada, and the twelve Member States of the European Communities (EC). This proceeding was initiated to review the further progress that has been made toward establishing legal protection of semiconductor mask works in the eighteen (18) subject countries, and to permit the Commissioner to determine, on a case-by-case basis, whether to extend the orders or to recommend that permanent protection be granted through the issuance of a Presidential proclamation pursuant to section 902(a)(2) of the SCPA, 17 U.S.C. 902(a)(2).

Comments were received from or on behalf of all countries that have been granted interim protection under the SCPA. At the hearing on Mar. 16, 1988, testimony was received from the Government of Switzerland, the Commission of the European Communities, the Electronic Industry Association of Japan, and the U.S Semiconductor Industry Association.

Based on the record, the Commissioner has decided to extend all eighteen (18) interim protection orders until May 31, 1989.
Dates: The effective date of this order shall be June 1, 1988. The termination date of this order shall be May 31, 1989.
For Further Information Contact: Michael K. Kirk, Assistant Commissioner for External Affairs, by telephone at (703) 557-3065, or by mail marked to his attention and addressed to Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks, Box 4, Washington, D.C. 20231.
Supplementary Information: The SCPA established a new form of intellectual property protection for mask works that are fixed in semiconductor chips. Mask works are defined as a "series of related images, however fixed or encoded," that represent the three-dimensional pattern in the layers of a semiconductor chip. Thus, the subject matter of protection under the SCPA are the layout designs of semiconductor chips, known in some countries as "integrated circuit layout designs" or as "semiconductor topographies." The SCPA provides a ten-year term of protection for original mask works measured from their date of registration or first commercial exploitation anywhere in the world. To maintain protection, mask works must be registered in the United States Copyright Office within two years of first commercial exploitation.

Protection for foreign mask works may be extended under both section 902 and section 914 of the SCPA. Protection of foreign mask works under section 902 continues until revoked. Section 902 sets out three different ways that foreign mask works may become eligible for protection in the United States. First, on the date the work is registered or is first commercially exploited anywhere in the world, the mask work is protectible if its owner is a national, domiciliary or sovereign authority of a foreign nation that is a party to a treaty that provides protection of mask works and to which the United States is also a party, or a stateless person wherever domiciled. Second, foreign mask works may be protected when they are first commercially exploited in the United States. The third way, set forth in section 902(a)(2), is when the foreign mask work comes within the scope of a Presidential proclamation. The President may issue a proclamation upon finding that a foreign nation extends protection to mask works of U.S. nationals or domiciliaries (1) on substantially the same basis as it protects mask works of its own nationals and domiciliaries, or (2) on substantially the same basis as the SCPA.

Section 914 was included in the SCPA as a transitional provision, intended by Congress to encourage other countries to pass laws extending protection to this new form of intellectual property. Once laws were in place, it was reasoned, permanent protection for foreign mask works could be conferred under section 902 or through a multilateral treaty that extended coverage to mask works. Section 914 gives the Secretary of Commerce authority to issue orders extending interim protection to foreign mask work owners upon the satisfaction of certain conditions. First, the Secretary must find that the foreign nation is making good-faith efforts and reasonable progress toward entering into a treaty with the United States, or that the foreign government is in the process of enacting legislation that will protect U.S. mask works on the same basis as domestic mask works, or at a level similar to that provided under the SCPA. Second, the Secretary must determine that nationals, domiciliaries and sovereign authorities of the foreign nation are not engaged in the misappropriation, unauthorized distribution, or commercial exploitation of mask works. Finally, the Secretary must determine that issuance of an interim order would promote the purposes of the SCPA and international comity with respect to the protection of mask works.

Under the original terms of the SCPA, the Secretary's authority under Section 914 expired on Nov. 7, 1987. Congress included the three-year transition period to encourage other countries time to enact legislation providing mask work protection. It was also thought that progress would be made under the auspices of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) toward the development of a multilateral treaty extending protection to integrated circuit layout designs. While commendable progress has taken place on both fronts, the Congress recently extended the Secretary's authority under Section 914 until July 1, 1991. See P.L. 100-159, Nov. 8, 1987. The purpose of the extension was to enable the United States to "provide a continued incentive for foreign nations to move expeditiously to enact chip protection legislation," and to "lay a sound basis for the development of a new multilateral treaty under the auspices of the WIPO, or another appropriate forum." H.R. Rep. No. 100-388, 100th Cong., 1st Sess. 3-4 (1987).

The Secretary of Commerce has delegated to the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks the authority under section 914 to make pertinent findings and to issue orders for the interim protection of foreign mask works. The Patent and Trademark Office established procedures for submission of requests for interim orders. The Commissioner has issued orders granting interim protection under section 914 for mask works produced in Australia, Belgium, Canada, Denmark, Finland, France, the Federal Republic of Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom. With the exception of orders in favor of mask works produced in Switzerland and Finland, all of the interim orders have been extended. See Interim Protection for Mask Works of Foreign Nationals, 51 FR 30690 (Aug. 28, 1986). Orders for all eighteen (18) countries are in effect until May 31, 1988.

On Nov. 18, 1987, a Notice of Initiation of Proceedings was published at 52 FR 44200, whereby the Commissioner requested comments and scheduled a hearing concerning the status of the interim protection orders previously issued under section 914. The Commissioner announced that he would determine, on a case-by-case basis, whether to extend the interim protection available under section 914 or to recommend that the President confer permanent protection through a proclamation under section 902(a)(2) of the SCPA. On Feb. 25, 1988, a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking was published at 53 FR 5588-90, setting forth proposed regulations that specify the content and procedures for submission of requests to the Secretary of Commerce for the issuance of such proclamations.

Submissions of the Parties

Comments were submitted by the Governments of Japan, Switzerland, Sweden, Finland, Canada, and Australia; the Commission of the European Communities submitted comments on behalf of the EC Member States. Comments were also received from the Electronic Industries Association of Japan (EIAJ) and the U.S. Semiconductor Industry Association (SIA). At the hearing on Mar. 16, 1988, testimony was received from the Government of Switzerland, the Commission of the European Communities, the EIAJ and the SIA.

European Communities

The views of the Commission of the European Communities were delivered at the hearing by Mme. Margarita Langer, Director General for Internal Markets and Industrial Affairs. Mme. Langer began her testimony by observing that considerable progress has taken place in the EC relative to the legal protection of semiconductor chip layout designs. On Dec. 16, 1986, the Council of the EC issued its Directive on the Legal Protection of Topographies of Semiconductor Products (Directive), 87/54/EEC, OJ No. L24, 27.1.87, p. 36. The Directive sets forth principles to be applied in all EC Member States, obligating them to enact laws and administrative provisions necessary to provide protection for topographies according to the principles.

Mme. Langer stated that the standards of protection required under the Directive are substantially similar to those in the SCPA. Member States must grant exclusive rights to authorize or prohibit the reproduction and commercial exploitation of a protected topography, however it is fixed or encoded. Reverse engineering is permitted, and no liability attaches to an innocent infringer prior to notice that the work is protected. Protection is granted for ten years from the date of first commercial exploitation anywhere in the world, or from the date of the filing of an application for registration in those Member States that require registration. Registration and deposit of identifying material are optional; if the law of a Member State requires a deposit, trade secret material must remain confidential. The Member States have discretion under the Directive to protect foreign mask works through membership in a multilateral treaty or through bilateral measures.

The Directive required that all Member States enact legislation protecting semiconductor topographies by Nov. 7, 1987. Mme. Langer stated that, while legislation was not completed in all twelve Member States by that date, laws are in place in five Member States—Denmark, the Federal Republic of Germany, France, the Netherlands, and the United Kingdom. Protection for foreign mask works under all of these laws is based on the existence of reciprocal protection in the particular foreign country.

Mme. Langer reported that progress towards implementation of the Directive in the other seven states has been substantial. In Belgium, a draft law has been prepared and is awaiting presentation to the Parliament, following endorsement by a newly formed government. A presidential decision to implement the Directive has been prepared in Greece, and implementing legislation is pending before the Greek Parliament. Adoption of a draft law in Spain is expected by May 1988. In Ireland, issuance of a national instrument is expected shortly. Draft laws are before the Parliaments of Italy and Luxembourg. A decree-law has been prepared in Portugal, and at the time of the hearing was awaiting action by the Portuguese Council of Ministers.

To assure that U.S. mask works are protected in the EC while national laws protecting semiconductor topographies are finalized, the Council of the European Communities adopted a decision on Oct. 26, 1987, obligating the Member States to extend protection under the Directive to U.S. nationals and domiciliaries until Nov. 7, 1990. Council Decision of 26 October 1987, 87/532/EEC, OJ No. L313, 4.11.87, p. 22. This protection is based on continued U.S. protection of mask works produced in the EC. Mme. Langer testified that no misappropriation of mask works is taking place in the Member States. Since legislation is not in place throughout the EC, Mme. Langer requested an extension of the interim orders granting protection under section 914 of the SCPA to mask works produced in the twelve Member States. She stated that the Commission will request a Presidential proclamation conferring permanent protection under section 902(a)(2) as soon as all laws are final.

Government of Switzerland/Swiss Federation of Commerce and Industry (SFCI)

The views of the Government of Switzerland, supported by the SFCI, were conveyed at the hearing by Dr. Roland Grossenbacher, Assistant Director-General of the Swiss Federal Intellectual Property Office. Dr. Grossenbacher indicated that a degree of protection for mask works in Switzerland is currently available through a recently-enacted unfair competition statute. On the international level, he noted that the Government of Switzerland has strongly supported the movement within WIPO to conclude a treaty on the protection of integrated circuits.

Dr. Grossenbacher stated that permanent protection of mask works will be established in the context of a total revision of the Swiss Copyright Act. Dr. Grossenbacher noted that a Federal commission concluded the preparation of a draft law in Dec., 1987, and that the draft includes a chapter concerning the protection of mask works. He stated that the chapter is framed along the lines of the SCPA and the EC Directive. Dr. Grossenbacher indicated that final legislation should be in place by late 1989 or early 1990.

Protection of mask works under the proposed chapter is of a sui generis nature, according to Dr. Grossenbacher, even though it will likely be included in the Copyright Act. The subject matter of protection is to be topographies and parts of topographies manufactured by any process, "provided that their structure is not evident." Dr. Grossenbacher stated that the term "parts of topographies" indicates that protection will extend to discrete semiconductor devices that meet the requisite standard of originality.

Like the SCPA, the Swiss draft contains exceptions to the rights of mask work owners for reverse engineering and innocent infringement. The draft goes beyond the SCPA, however, by providing that innocent infringers must pay royalties to mask work owners for all uses of a protected work, not merely for those occurring after the innocent infringer had notice that the work was protected. The draft provides for a ten-year term of protection extending from the date of the application for registration or the date of first commercial exploitation of the mask work, whichever comes first. Registration must be made within two years after first commercial exploitation to maintain protection for the ten-year period. While permitting any party to inspect the register of mask works, the draft chapter safeguards against disclosure of trade secrets by precluding public access to the application files.

Protection for foreign mask works under the draft will be provided on the basis of reciprocity, according to Dr. Grossenbacher. Stating that no misappropriation of mask works has been or is taking place in Switzerland, Dr. Grossenbacher requested that the order granting interim protection under the SCPA to mask works produced in Switzerland be extended for two years, until May 31, 1990.

Government of Sweden/Federation of Swedish Industries (FSI)

In comments presented on behalf of the Government of Sweden and supported by the FSI, the Swedish Ministry of Justice stated that an Act for the Protection of the Layout-Design of the Circuitry in Semiconductor Products (Swedish Act) has been in force since Apr. 1, 1987. The Government has issued a Special Decree extending protection under the Act to mask works of U.S. nationals and domiciliaries, and to mask works first commercialized in the United States, until May 8, 1988. The basis for the protection of U.S. works under the Special Decree is reciprocity.

The Ministry stated that protection afforded to U.S. mask works under the Swedish Act and the Special Decree is substantially the same as that provided under the SCPA. The Government and the FSI requested an extension of the section 914 interim order in favor of Swedish mask works for an "appropriate" period; the Government of Sweden will extend reciprocal protection to U.S. works under the Special Decree for an identical period. The Swedish Government is prepared to begin negotiations on the question of permanent protection for Swedish mask works under section 902 at any time, according to the Ministry.

Government of Finland

On behalf of the Government of Finland, the Finnish Ministry of Education presented a Progress Report on the preparation of integrated circuits legislation. The Ministry states that the State Copyright Committee published a report, Information Technology and Copyright , in Apr. 1987. In the report, the Committee proposed a draft sui generis law for the protection of integrated circuit layout designs. Fifty-seven written comments on the proposal were received, and reaction to the Committee draft was supportive.

The Ministry reported that the proposed legislation is being modified to incorporate suggestions made in the written comments. The points of clarification are: more precise definitions; provision for an exclusive right of importation; deletion of a provision concerning private use; provisions covering reverse engineering and innocent infringement; simplification of the duration provision; and more precise formulation of penalties for infringement.

The Ministry stated that a final version of the draft will be presented to the Finnish Parliament in mid-1988.

Government of Canada/Information Technology Association of Canada (ITAC)

The Canadian Government, supported by ITAC, presented comments requesting a one-year extension of the order protecting Canadian mask works under the SCPA. The Government noted that the Ministry of Consumer and Corporate Affairs issued a discussion paper in Apr. 1987, containing recommendations for legislation protecting semiconductor layout designs. The Ministry has stated its intention to introduce such legislation in the first half of 1988. The Government also cited its strong support for multilateral efforts to conclude an international convention for the protection of integrated circuit designs

Government of Australia

In written comments presented on behalf of the Government of Australia, the Australian Attorney-General's Department reported that the design and manufacture of integrated circuits is a small but growing sector of Australian industry. The Department referred to its discussion paper published in Mar. 1987, Copyright Protection for Artistic Works Industrially Applied, in which the need for legal protection for integrated circuits was recognized. Based on comments on the discussion paper, the Attorney-General has concluded tentatively that a sui generis regime of protection for integrated circuits should be developed in Australia.

While formal proposals for legislation have not yet been considered, the Department maintained that protection for U.S. mask works is currently available in Australia under the Copyright Act of 1968. Should a court find that the Act does not protect mask works, the Department stated that it will seek immediate introduction of appropriate legislation. The Department requests an appropriate extension of the order granting interim protection in the United States to mask works produced in Australia.

Electronic Industries Association of Japan (EIAJ)/ Government of Japan

The views of the EIAJ, with the concurrence of the Government of Japan, were delivered at the hearing by Mr. Robert Schwartz, Esquire, Washington counsel to EIAJ. Mr. Schwartz testified that a Presidential proclamation should be granted to Japan as soon as the Patent and Trademark Office has issued final rules implementing section 902(a)(2) of the SCPA. He noted that the Japanese Act Concerning the Circuit Layout of a Semiconductor Integrated Circuit has been in force since Jan. 1, 1986. The standards of protection under the Japanese Act are virtually identical to those under the SCPA, Mr. Schwartz claimed, and protection is available for mask works produced anywhere in the world, including the United States.

Mr. Schwartz recalled the 1986 proceeding in which the Patent and Trademark Office considered extensions of previously-issued interim protection orders. He referred to two arguments made at a July 9, 1986, hearing against the issuance of a Presidential proclamation in favor of Japanese mask works; he stated that the concerns on which those arguments were based have been superseded by events. The first argument was that Presidential proclamations in general should not be issued unless it is clear that they can also be revoked in light of changed circumstances. Mr. Schwartz stated that the recently-enacted SCPA Extension clarifies the President's authority to revoke proclamations issued under section 902(a)(2).

The other argument against the issuance of a Presidential proclamation was that as of July 1986 there had been only six months' experience under the Japanese Act. Mr. Schwartz maintained that this concern is now obsolete. Japan now has two full years' experience under the Act, nearly 1500 mask works have been registered in Japan as of Mar. 1988, and roughly 18 percent of the applications processed in 1987 were from U.S. entities.

Mr. Schwartz urged that interim protection for mask works produced in Japan continue in force until final rules are issued and the appropriate actions toward the issuance of a Presidential proclamation can be taken.

U.S. Semiconductor Industry Association (SIA)

Mr. William Cray, Operations Law Group Manager, Digital Equipment Corporation, presented the views of SIA at the Mar. 16 hearing. SIA favors a blanket one-year extension of all 18 interim protection orders under section 914 of the SCPA, and opposes the issuance of a Presidential proclamation under section 902(a)(2) to any country at this time. Mr. Cray stated that section 914 is the best mechanism for review and evaluation of mask work legislation in the United States and foreign countries, that the extent of such review under the Presidential proclamation provisions is not yet clear, and that section 914 provides full, if not permanent, protection to foreign mask work owners. He stated that the issuance of a Presidential proclamation could jeopardize the negotiation of the multilateral integrated-circuits treaty in WIPO (1) by relegating international dialogue concerning mask work legislation solely to the treaty negotiations, and (2) because the grant of bilateral protection through a Presidential proclamation will compromise the negotiation of a multilateral treaty.

Mr. Cray noted SIA's longstanding concern that adequate protection for the discrete class of semiconductor products be provided under both the SCPA and mask work protection laws of other countries.

Concerning the degree of legal protection for mask works in each of the countries under consideration, Mr. Cray urged that the Commission of the European Communities continue its aggressive efforts to ensure that legislation compatible with the Directive soon be in place in all EC Member States. Concerning the draft law in Switzerland, Mr. Cray made several recommendations—that the definition of "topography" be made more precise, that the limitation on the right of reproduction for purposes of analysis be clarified, and that a provision for reverse engineering be included.

Mr. Cray congratulated the Government of Sweden on the enactment of its mask work protection law in Apr. 1987, stating that SIA prefers to see the law in operation for a substantial period of time prior to the issuance of a Presidential proclamation. He also requested that the Swedish Government explain the purpose of a provision in the law permitting reproduction of single copies of mask works for private use. Mr. Cray expressed SIA's pleasure with the progress made in Finland toward the development of mask work legislation during the short period since interim U.S. protection was granted to Finnish works.

Praising the Canadian Government's plans to introduce legislation protecting integrated circuits by July 1988, Mr. Cray voiced SIA's concern that the current draft does not adequately protect the discrete class of semiconductor products. He suggested statutory language to ensure coverage of "discretes." Noting that draft legislation has yet to be prepared in Australia, Mr. Cray nonetheless cited the Australian Government's active participation in the WIPO negotiations for a multilateral treaty as evidence of its good faith intent to provide adequate legal protection for mask works. He restated an SIA concern that Australia's current copyright law does not adequately protect mask works, since it does not provide for reverse engineering, innocent infringement, or registration and notice of mask works. Mr. Cray urged the Australian Government to proceed expeditiously with the preparation of specific legislation to protect mask works.

As to Japan, Mr. Cray noted the record of success under the Japanese law protecting integrated circuits since it became effective in Jan. 1986, but voiced SIA's opposition to the issuance of a Presidential proclamation in favor of Japanese mask works at this time. Restating SIA's objections to Presidential proclamations in general, he cited two concerns specific to the Japanese law. First, SIA claimed that the quasi-governmental agency responsible for registering claims to mask work protection, the Industrial Property Cooperation Center (IPCC), has strong ties to the Japanese semiconductor industry. Second, the Japanese law requires the inclusion of trade secret material in applications for mask work registration; because the IPCC is sponsored by Japanese companies, SIA feared that the confidentiality of proprietary information contained in the IPCC registry may not be maintained.

Supplemental Comments

To allow the parties to address issues raised in written comments or in testimony at the Mar. 16 hearing, the record in this proceeding remained open until Apr. 4, 1988. Supplemental comments were received from the Swedish Ministry of Justice on behalf of the Government of Sweden, from the EIAJ, and from SIA.

The Swedish Ministry of Justice addressed SIA's concern regarding a private-use exemption in the new Swedish law, explaining that the exemption was included for two reasons. First, since protection under the law extends to both two- and three-dimensional expressions of layout designs, a private-use exemption was included to permit private copying of two-dimensional representations of mask works, such as magazine photographs. The provision does not permit manufacture of semiconductor products for private use. Second, a private-use exemption is included in the Swedish Copyright Act, under which mask works were arguably protected before the new integrated-circuits law took effect. It seemed reasonable, according to the Ministry, to include in the new law a similar exemption for private copying of two-dimensional expressions of semiconductor layout designs.

The EIAJ addressed SIA's concerns regarding the quasi-governmental nature of IPCC and the confidentiality of trade secret information in the registration process. Concerning the nature of IPCC, EIAJ stated that IPCC exists only by statute and regulation, and that it may be dissolved in the event of any violation of law. Moreover, as the Government of Japan confirmed at the most recent session of the WIPO committee of experts on integrated circuits, IPCC enjoys the legal status of a "national public authority." EIAJ also pointed out that no specific allegation of impropriety has ever been made with respect to the composition of IPCC.

Concerning the confidentiality of trade secret material, EIAJ stated that the registration officers at IPCC are former Japanese Patent Office employees appointed by the Minister of Trade and Industry, and that they have no links to the semiconductor industry. EIAJ cited Article 38 of the Japanese law, which makes it a crime for any IPCC officer or staff member to leak trade secret information. EIAJ also provided evidence that practice in Japan allows the obliteration of proprietary material from photographs or drawings of mask works deposited with registration applications.

SIA's additional comments reaffirmed its position concerning the importance of continued interim protection for foreign mask works under section 914 of the SCPA, its view that issuance of Presidential proclamations will compromise the multilateral treaty negotiations within WIPO, and its objection to the issuance of a Presidential proclamation in favor of Japanese mask works at this time. SIA expressed particular concern that an opportunity for review be provided as part of the Presidential proclamation process to ensure that U.S. mask works continue to receive reciprocal protection in particular foreign countries.

Findings of the Commissioner

Based on the record in this proceeding, consisting of the written submissions of the parties and the oral testimony received at the hearing on Mar. 16, 1988, the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks has decided to extend all of the interim orders previously issued under section 914 of the SCPA until May 31, 1989, one year from the date on which they are now scheduled to expire. No recommendations concerning the issuance of a Presidential proclamation under section 902(a)(2) of the SCPA will be made in this proceeding.

The Commissioner finds that substantial progress toward the enactment of legislation protecting mask works has been made in all eighteen (18) countries subject to interim protection orders. Indeed, legislation is now in place in seven countries - Denmark, the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Japan, the Netherlands, Sweden and the United Kingdom. Mask works of U.S. nationals and domiciliaries, and mask works first commercialized in the United States, are entitled to protection under all of these laws on the same basis as the laws protect domestic works, and on substantially the same basis as mask works are protected under the SCPA.

Moreover, the other eleven (11) countries are making good faith efforts toward the enactment of legislation that will protect U.S. mask works on the same basis as domestic works, or at a level similar to that provided under the SCPA. It is also noteworthy that these countries are actively supporting the work of WIPO in developing a new multilateral agreement that would establish a regime of international protection for mask works.

The record reveals no evidence that nationals, domiciliaries or sovereign authorities of any country subject to an interim protection order are engaged in the misappropriation, unauthorized distribution, or unauthorized commercial exploitation of mask works. The Commissioner also finds that a one-year extension of the previously-issued interim protection orders will promote the purposes of the SCPA and international comity with respect to the protection of mask works. While some of the parties requested extensions for a longer period, a one-year extension will permit further review of progress toward enactment of legislation in all countries now subject to interim orders, if such review is appropriate at the time.

Concerning the issuance of Presidential proclamations under section 902(a)(2) of the SCPA to those countries that provide permanent, reciprocal protection to U.S. mask works, it is commendable that legislation providing such protection is in place in seven (7) foreign countries and in varying degrees of preparation in eleven (11) others. However, no party in this proceeding requested the issuance of a Presidential proclamation at this time. The Commission of the European Communities noted that legislation protecting U.S. mask works is in effect in five Member States, but stated that it would request a Presidential proclamation conferring permanent protection under the SCPA only when laws have been enacted in all twelve (12) Member States. Similarly, the Government of Sweden stated its readiness to begin negotiations on the question of permanent U.S. protection for Swedish mask works, but did not formally request a Presidential proclamation. The EIAJ, while avowing that the first proclamation issued under section 902(a)(2) should be in favor of Japanese mask works, stated that no request would be made until the Patent and Trademark Office has promulgated final rules for the submission of such requests.

In a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking published at 53 FR 5588-90 on Feb. 25, 1988, the Patent and Trademark Office proposed regulations under section 902(a)(2) that specify the content and procedures for submission of requests for Presidential proclamations to the Secretary of Commerce. The proposed rules provide that an evaluation concerning the issuance of a Presidential proclamation will be initiated by the Commissioner upon request of a foreign government, or upon the Commissioner's own motion. The proposed rules also provide that the record in proceedings under section 914 will form the basis for determining whether a recommendation should be made that the President issue a proclamation.

The Commissioner does not agree with SIA that issuance of Presidential proclamations will jeopardize the ongoing work within WIPO to negotiate a multilateral agreement for the protection of semiconductor layout designs. The evidence adduced in this proceeding demonstrates that the semiconductor industry is increasingly international in scope. While the United States is a large market for semiconductor products, other markets are strong and growing. It is axiomatic that protection for foreign mask works in the United States under a Presidential proclamation is no substitute for protection in other countries under a widely-ratified multilateral agreement. It strains reason to suggest, as SIA does, that protection of foreign mask works in the United States under a Presidential proclamation may compromise successful completion of the draft integrated-circuits treaty, which is clearly in the best interests of all countries where semiconductor products are manufactured. The Commissioner sees no valid reason, in the meantime, to withhold permanent U.S. protection for mask works produced in those countries that clearly meet the statutory criteria of eligibility in section 902(a)(2)(A) and (B) of the SCPA.

Issuance of final rules implementing the Presidential proclamation provisions of section 902 is forthcoming. Once issued, the Commissioner will take appropriate steps to assure that U.S. protection is made available to eligible foreign mask works. Interim protection under section 914 will continue in force for one additional year, that is, until May 31, 1989.

Order Extending the Expiration Date for Interim Protection Orders Issued Under Chapter 9 of Title 17, United States Code

In accordance with the authority vested in me by Amendment 2 to Department Organization Order 10-14 regarding 17 U.S.C. 914, and based upon the record of this proceeding commenced on Nov. 18, 1987, I find that Australia, Belgium, Canada, Denmark, Finland, France, the Federal Republic of Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom are making good faith efforts toward providing protection for U.S. mask works in conformity with 17 U.S.C. 902(a)(2). I find further that nationals, domiciliaries and sovereign authorities of those countries, and persons controlled by them, are not engaged in the misappropriation, unauthorized distribution or unauthorized commercial exploitation of mask works. I find further that the extension of the expiration date for interim orders for those countries will promote the purposes of the Semiconductor Chip Protection Act of 1984 and international comity with respect to the protection of mask works.

Accordingly, the existing interim orders for Australia, Belgium, Canada, Denmark, Finland, France, the Federal Republic of Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and the United Kingdom are hereby extended and shall terminate on May 31, 1989.

DONALD J. QUIGG,
Apr. 29, 1988. Assistant Secretary and Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks.

Department of Commerce

Patent and Trademark Office
37 CFR Part 1
[Docket Number 80108-8008]

Miscellaneous Changes in Patent Practice

Agency: Patent and Trademark Office, Commerce
Action: Notice of proposed rulemaking
Summary: The Patent and Trademark Office proposes to amend its regulations to (1) correct certain rules to conform to previous changes in other rules, (2) require all correspondence directed to the Patent and Trademark Office concerning a patent application to include the serial number after the Office has assigned and informed the applicant of the serial number of the application, (3) provide for the indication of copyright and mask work protection in patent applications, (4) require that any necessary corrections to drawings be made only by submission of new or replacement drawings, (5) provide in limited situations for the use of color drawings in utility patent applications, (6) prohibit the use of broken lines in design patent application drawings to show hidden planes and surfaces, and (7) provide for a refund of a portion of the preliminary examination fee where the Demand is withdrawn. The change pertaining to the drawings would remove any need for patent applicants or their representatives to borrow drawings filed in patent applications from the Office after the effective date of the rule change for purposes of making corrections.
Dates: Comments must be submitted on or before July 21, 1988; a public hearing will be held on July 21, 1988 at 9 a.m. Requests to present oral testimony should be received on or before July 14, 1988.
Addresses: Address written comments and requests to present oral testimony to the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks, Washington, D.C. 20231, Attention: Louis O. Maassel. The hearing will be held in Room 912, on the 9th floor of Crystal Park Bldg. 2, located at 2121 Crystal Dr., Arlington, Va. Written comments and a transcript of the public hearing will be available for public inspection in Room 11A13 of Crystal Plaza Bldg. 3, located at 2021 Jefferson Davis Highway, Arlington, Va.

Supplemental Information

Discussion of specific rules

Section 1.4, if amended as proposed, would correct the listing of rules in paragraph (a)(2).

Section 1.5, if amended as proposed, would provide that all correspondence related to a U.S. national patent application already filed with the Patent and Trademark Office must include the identification of the serial number assigned to the application by the Patent and Trademark Office. Any correspondence not containing such identification will be returned to the sender where a return address is available. Given there are over 30,000 documents to be routed each day, this requirement will greatly facilitate the matching of correspondence received with the relevant patent application file. Without serial number identification, documents are either significantly delayed or never matched with the relevant application file. The proposed amendments to paragraph (b) draw attention to the different requirements for identification in correspondence relating to the payment of maintenance fees.

Section 1.53(c) and (d), if amended as proposed, would require that a copy of the "Notice of Incomplete Application" or "Notice to File Missing Part" form sent to the applicant by the Office should accompany any response submitted to the Office in order for the response to be accepted. This will prevent the inadvertent assignment of a new serial number to correspondence sent in response to such notices or the misrouting of the correspondence.

Section 1.56(e), if amended as proposed, would correct the reference to the "Board of Appeals" to read "Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences".

Section 1.71, if amended as proposed, would contain new paragraphs (d) and (e) relating to the inclusion of copyright and mask work notices in patent applications. The provisions proposed are similar to those set forth in the Official Gazette notice dated Mar. 20, 1987 titled "Inclusion of Copyright or Mask Work Notice in Patents" apppearing on Apr. 21, 1987 at 1077 O.G. 22. Under current intellectual property laws, it is possible to obtain copyright protection or mask work protection as well as patent protection for certain designs and technologies. On occasion, an author or inventor considers it desirable to include a notice of copyright or mask work in a design or utility patent which discloses material on which copyright or mask work protection has previously been established.

The inclusion of a copyright or mask work notice in a patent that discloses material on which copyright or mask work protection has previously been established, would serve to publicize and thereby protect the various intellectual property rights of the author or inventor. Further, this publication would tend to protect the public by militating against an unintentional encroachment into the rights. The presence of an unrestricted copyright or mask work notice in a patent could have an inhibiting effect on public dissemination of the patent disclosure to the extent it discourages the facsimile reproduction of the patent. The possible effect would be contrary to the mission of the Patent and Trademark Office to disseminate knowledge and information publicly by way of patent issuance, publication, and distribution. To avoid this effect, it is considered necessary to include an appropriate authorization by the author or inventor for copying of the patent itself with any copyright or mask work notice appearing in the patent. Inclusion of a copyright or mask work notice after a Notice of Allowance has been mailed will be permitted only if the criteria of 37 CFR 1.312 have been fulfilled. If the authorization required by proposed §1.71(e) is not included, the notice will be objected to as improper by the examiner. If the examiner maintains the objection upon reconsideration, further review must be by way of a petition filed in accordance with 37 CFR 1.181.

Section 1.81, if amended as proposed, would clarify that high quality copies of drawings should be submitted in patent applications. Since corrections are the responsibility of the applicant, the original drawing(s) should be retained by the applicant for future correction, if necessary.

Section 1.84(a), if amended as proposed, would be reworded to recommend that two-ply or three-ply bristol board be used by applicants to prepare drawings so that erasure and correction by India ink is possible. Proposed amended paragraph (a) would also indicate that photolithographs are not acceptable as drawings and add a reference to paragraph 1.84(p) relating to color drawings in utility patent applications.

High quality copies of drawings should be supplied to the Patent and Trademark Office when filing a patent application. Whether or not bristol board is used for drawings is applicant's choice. However, the drawings that are submitted to the Office must be on strong, white, smooth, and non-shiny paper and meet the standards according to §1.84. If corrections to the drawings are necessary, they should be made to the original drawings and high-quality copies of the corrected original drawings then submitted to the Office.

Only one copy is required or desired. The Office had attempted to encourage the submission of three copies, but compliance was very low. It was determined that it is more efficient for the Office to rely on consistency and only one copy.

The Patent and Trademark Office will no longer release to applicants, bonded drafting companies or others drawings from patent applications filed after the effective date of these proposed rule changes. See proposed §1.85(b). If corrections to the drawings are necessary, new corrected drawings must be prepared and filed in the Patent and Trademark Office. Therefore, the applicant, attorney or agent should retain the original drawing.

The Office will continue to allow applicants to borrow for correction drawings which have been filed prior to the effective date of these rule changes.

Section 1.84(b), if amended as proposed, would provide for applicants using drawing sheets which are 8½ by 13 inches in size.

Section 1.84(i), if amended as proposed, would make grammatical corrections in the text of the rules and clarify Office drawing requirements as to exploded views, enlarged views and views which require several sheets.

Section 1.84(j), if amended as proposed, would clarify how views should be arranged when they are placed sideways on the drawing sheet.

Section 1.84(l), if amended as proposed, would indicate that drawings may be identified by lightly writing identifying information on the drawings in the top margin. For identification by serial number,the Office prefers that the information be placed on the front of the drawing. When the applicant forwards drawings separate from the original application papers, a cover letter identifying the application by serial number must accompany the drawings. The application serial number must also be placed on drawings filed after the serial number has been indicated in correspondence to the applicant, in accordance with §1.84(l).

Section 1.84(n), if added as proposed, would permit numbering of the drawing sheets. However, such numbering would not appear on the drawings of the printed patent.

Section 1.84(o), if added as proposed, would provide for the indication of copyright or mask work protection notice on patent application drawings. This procedure is the same as that established by the Official Gazette notice dated Mar. 20, 1987 published on Apr. 21, 1987 at 1077 O.G. 22.

Section 1.84(p), if added as proposed, would provide in the rules for the filing of color drawings in a very limited number of utility patent applications. An Official Gazette notice relating to this topic dated Aug. 6, 1986, titled "Use of Color Drawings in Utility Patents" was published on Sept. 9, 1986 at 1070 O.G. 10. In light of the substantial administrative and economic burden associated with printing a utility patent with color drawings, the letters patent and the patent copies which are printed at the issuance of the patent will be only in black and white. However, copies of the patent with the color drawings may be purchased separately from the Patent and Trademark Office upon special request and payment of the fee.

It is anticipated that color drawings will only be permitted when color drawings are the only practical method in a utility patent application in which to disclose the subject matter sought to be patented. In order to avoid issues of lack of description or enablement under 35 U.S.C. 112 or new matter under 35 U.S.C. 132, applicants are advised to file the desired color drawings as part of the original application papers. The petition should be directed to the attention of the Deputy Assistant Commissioner for Patents.

Section 1.85, if amended as proposed, would indicate that drawings not complying with §1.84 will be accepted in some instances for purposes of examination and that drawings which do comply with all rules relating to drawings be required later, and that no corrections are permitted to drawings filed in the Patent and Trademark Office after the effective date of the rule change.

When corrected drawings are required to be submitted at the time of allowance, the applicant is required to submit acceptable drawings within three months from the mailing of the "Notice of Allowance". Within that three-month period, two weeks should be allowed for review of the drawings by the Drafting Branch. If the Office finds that correction is necessary, the applicant must submit a new corrected drawing to the Office within the original three-month period to avoid the necessity of obtaining an extension of time and paying the extension fee. Therefore, the applicant should file corrected drawings as soon as possible following the receipt of the Notice of Allowance.

Section 1.152, if amended as proposed, would permit broken lines on drawings to show visible environmental structure but not hidden planes and surfaces in design patent application drawings.

Section 1.378, if amended as proposed, would amend the rules to conform with section 404 of Public Law 98-622 which states:

> "(a) Notwithstanding section 41(c) of title 35, United States Code, as in effect before the enactment of Public Law 97-247 (96 Stat. 317), the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks may accept after the six-month grace period referred to in such section 41(c), the payment of any maintenance fee due on any patent based on an application filed in the Patent and Trademark Office on or after Dec. 12, 1980, and before Aug. 27, 1982, to the same extent as in the case of patents based on applications filed in the Patent and Trademark Office on or after Aug. 27, 1982."

The proposed rule wording would include reference to maintenance fees due on patents based on applications filed in the Patent and Trademark Office on or after Dec. 12, 1980 and before Aug. 27, 1982.

Section 1.421(f), if amended as proposed would delete reference to a canceled PCT Rule and add reference to the current PCT Rule provision.

Section 1.480(d), if amended as proposed, would provide for a refund of a portion of the international preliminary examination fee where the applicant withdraws the demand before the examiner has begun the international preliminary examination. An amount equal to the transmittal fee would be retained by the Patent and Trademark Office to cover the cost of the clerical work involved.

Environmental, Energy, and Other Considerations

The proposed rule change will not have a significant impact on the quality of the human environment or conservation of energy resources.

The proposed rule change is in conformity with the requirements of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (Pub. L. 96-354), Executive Order 12291, and the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.

The General Counsel of the Department of Commerce certified to the Small Business Administration that the proposed rule change will not have a significant adverse economic impact on a substantial number of small entities (Regulatory Flexibility Act, Pub. L. 96-354) because the proposed rule change corrects some rules so that they correspond to earlier changes, relate to identification of applications on correspondence, allow greater flexibility in patent drawing content and handling, and provide for a refund where a proper demand for international preliminary examination has been filed but withdrawn later.

The Patent and Trademark Office has determined that this proposed rule change is not a major rule under Executive Order 12291. The annual effect on the economy will be less than $100 million. There will be no major increase in costs or prices for consumers, individual industries, federal, state or local government agencies, or geographic regions. There will be no significant adverse effects on competition, employment, investment, productivity, innovation, or on the ability of United States-based enterprises to compete with foreign-based enterprises in domestic or export markets.

The Patent and Trademark Office has also determined that this notice has no federalism implications affecting the relationship between the national government and the States as outlined in Executive Order 12612.

The rule change involves correction of information requirements subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq., and are cleared under OMB Control No. 0651-0011.

(c) If any application is filed without the specification or drawing required by paragraph (b) of this section, applicant will be so notified and given a time period within which to submit the omitted specification or drawing in order to obtain a filing date as of the date of filing of such submission. >A copy of the "Notice of Incomplete Application" form notifying the applicant should accompany any response thereto submitted to the Office.< If the ommission is not corrected within the time period set, the application will be returned or otherwise disposed of; the fee, if submitted, will be refunded less a $15.00 handling fee.

(d) If an application which has been accorded a filing date pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section does not include the appropriate filing fee or an oath or declaration by the applicant, applicant will be so notified, if a correspondence address has been provided and given a period of time within which to file the fee, oath, or declaration and to pay the surcharge as set forth in §1.16(e) in order to prevent abandonment of the application. >A copy of the "Notice to File Missing Parts" form mailed to applicant should accompany any response thereto submitted to the Office.< If the required filing fee is not timely paid, or if the processing and retention fee set forth in §1.21(l) is not paid within one year of the date of mailing of the notification required by this paragraph, the application will be disposed of. No copies will be provided or certified by the Office of an application which has been disposed of or in which neither the required basic filing fee nor the processing and retention fee has been paid. The notification pursuant to this paragraph may be made simultaneously with any notification pursuant tothis section. If no correspondence address is included in the application, applicant has two months from the filing date to file the >basic filing< fee, oath or declaration and to pay the surcharge as set forth in §1.16(e) in order to prevent abandonment of the application or >, if no basic filing fee has been paid,< one year from the filing date to pay the processing and retention fee set forth in §1.21(l) to prevent disposal of the application.

5. Section 1.56 is proposed to be amended by revising paragraph (e) to read as follows:

* * * * *

(e) The examination of an application for compliance with paragraph (d) of this section will normally be delayed until such time as (1) all other matters are resolved, or (2) appellant's reply brief pursuant to §1.193(b) has been received and the application is otherwise prepared for consideration by the Board of >Patent< Appeals >and Interferences<, at which time the appeal will be suspended for examination pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section. The prosecution of the application will be reopened to the extent necessary to conduct the examination pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section including any appeal pursuant to §1.191. If an appeal has already been filed based on a rejection on other grounds, any further rejection under this section shall be treated in accordance with §1.193(c).

* * * * *

6. Section 1.71 is proposed to be amended by adding new paragraphs (d) and (e) to read as follows:

§1.71 Detailed description and specification of the invention.

>(d) A copyright or mask work notice may be placed in a design or utility patent application adjacent to copyright and mask work material contained therein. The notice may appear at any appropriate portion of the patent application disclosure. For notices in drawings, see §1.84(o). The content of the notice must be limited to only those elements required by law. For example, "©1983 John Doe" (17 U.S.C. 401) and "M John Doe" (17 U.S.C. 909) would be properly limited and, under current statutes, legally sufficient notices of copyright and mask work, respectively. Inclusion of a copyright or mask work notice will be permitted only if the authorization language set forth in paragraph (e) of this section is included at the beginning (preferably as the first paragraph) of the specification.

(e) The authorization shall read as follows:

A portion of the disclosure of this patent document contains material which is subject to {copyright or mask work} protection. The {copyright or mask work} owner has no objection to the facsimile reproduction by anyone of the patent document or the patent disclosure, as it appears in the Patent and Trademark Office patent file or records, but otherwise reserves all {copyright or mask work} rights whatsoever.<

7. Section 1.81 is proposed to be amended by revising the title and paragraph (a) to read as follows:

§1.81 Drawings required >in patent application<.

(a) The applicant for a patent is required to furnish a drawing of his >or her< invention where necessary for the understanding of the subject matter sought to be patented; this drawing >, or a high quality copy thereof,< must be filed with the application. >Since corrections are the responsibility of the applicant, the original drawing(s) should be retained by the applicant for any necessary future corrections.<

* * * * *

8. Section 1.84 is proposed to be amended by revising paragraphs (a), (b), (i), (j) and (l) and by adding new paragraphs (n), (o), and (p), to read as follows:

§1.84 Standards for drawings.

(a) Paper and ink. Drawings >or high quality copies thereof which are submitted to the Office< must be made upon paper which is flexible, strong, white, smooth, nonshiny and durable [Two-ply or three-ply bristol board is preferred. The surface of the paper should be calendered and of a quality which will permit erasure and correction with India ink.] >It is recommended that two-ply or three-ply bristol board or paper of sufficient quality to permit erasure and correction with India ink be used for original drawings to facilitate any future corrections by the applicant.< India ink, or it equivalent in quality, is preferred for pen drawings to secure perfectly black solid lines. The use of white pigment to cover lines is not normally acceptable. >Photolithographs are not acceptable. See paragraph (p) of this section for use of color drawings in utility patent applications.<

(b) Size of sheet and margins. The size of the sheets on which drawings are made may [either] be exactly 8½ by 14 inches (21.6 by 35.6 cm.) >, exactly 8½ by 13 inches (21.6 by 33.1 cm.)<, or exactly 21.0 by 29.7 cm. (DIN size A4). All drawing sheets in a particular application must be the same size. One of the shorter sides of the sheets is regarded as its top.

>(2) On 8½ by 13 inch drawing sheets, the drawing must include a top margin of 1 inch (2.5 cm.) and bottom and side margins of ¼ inch (6.4 mm.) from the edges, thereby leaving a "sight" precisely 8 by 11¾ inches (20.3 by 29.8 cm.). Margin border lines are not permitted. All work must be included within the "sight". The sheets may be provided with two ¼ inch (6.4 mm.) diameter holes having their centerlines spaced 11/16 inch (17.5 mm.) below the top edge and 2¾ inches (7.0 cm.) apart, said holes being equally spaced from the respective side edges.<

[(2)]>(3)< On 21.0 by 29.7 cm. drawing sheets, the drawing must include a top margin of at least 2.5 cm., a left side margin of 2.5 cm., a right side margin of 1.5 cm., and a bottom margin of 1.0 cm. Margin border lines are not permitted. All work must be contained within a sight size not to exceed 17 by 26.2 cm.

(i) Views. The drawing must contain as many figures as may be necessary to show the invention; the figures should be consecutively numbered if possible in the order in which they appear. The figures may be >plan< [plain], elevation, section, or >perspective< [prespective] views, and detail views of portions or elements on a larger scale if necessary, may also be used. Exploded views, with the separated parts of the same figure embraced by a bracket, to show the relationship or order of assembly of various parts are permissible. >When an exploded view is shown in a figure which is on the same sheet as another figure, the exploded view should be placed in brackets.< When necessary, a view of a large machine or device in its entirety may be broken and extended over several sheets if there is no loss in facility of understanding the view. Where figures on two or more sheets form in effect a single complete figure, the figures on the several sheets should be so arranged that the complete figure can be understood by laying the drawing sheets adjacent to one another.

>The figures, even though on separate sheets, should be labeled as separate figures, for example as Fig. 1a, Fig. 1b, etc., so that it would be apparent that the views actually comprise one figure.< The arrangement should be such that no part of any of the figures appearing on the various sheets [are] >is < concealed and that the complete figure can be understood even though spaces will occur in the complete figure because of the margins on the drawing sheets. The plane upon which a sectional view is taken should be indicated on the general view by a broken line, the ends of which should be designated by numerals corresponding to the figure number of the sectional view and have arrows applied to indicate the direction in which the view is taken. A moved position may be shown by a broken line superimposed upon a suitable figure if this can be done without crowding, otherwise a separate figure must be used for this purpose. Modified forms of construction can only be shown in separate figures. Views should not be connected by projection lines nor should centerlines be used. >When a portion of a figure is enlarged for magnification purposes, the figure and the enlarged figure must be labeled as a separate figure.<

(j) Arrangement of views. All views on the same sheet should stand in the same direction and, if possible, stand so that they can be read with the sheet held in an upright position. If views longer than the width of the sheet are necessary for the clearest illustration of the invention, the sheet may be turned on its side so that the top of the sheet with the appropriate top margin >to be used as the heading space< is on the right-hand side. One figure must not be placed upon another or within the outline of another.

(l) [Extraneous matter.] >Identification of drawings.< Identifying indicia (such as the >serial number, group art unit, title of the invention,< attorney's docket number, inventor's name, number of sheets, etc.) not to exceed 2¾ inches (7.0 cm.) in width may be placed in a centered location between the side edges within three-fourths inch (19.1 mm.) of the top edge. >Either this marking technique on the front of the drawing or the placement, although not preferred, of this information and the title of the invention on the back of the drawings is acceptable.< Authorized security markings may be placed on the drawings provided they [be] >are< outside the illustrations and are removed when the material is declassified. Other extraneous matter will not be permitted upon the face of a drawing.

* * * * *

>(n) Numbering of drawing sheets. The drawing sheets may be numbered in consecutive arabic numbers at the top of the sheets, in the middle, but not in the margin. Such numbering will be deleted for printing purposes since page numbers are added at the time of printing the patent by the Office.<

>(o) Copyright or Mask Work Notice. A copyright or mask work notice may appear in the drawing but must be placed within the "sight" of the drawing immediately below the figure representing the copyright or mask work material and be limited to letters having a print size of ⅛ to ¼ inches high. The content of the notice must be limited to only those elements required by law. For example, "©1983 John Doe" (17 U.S.C. 401) and "M John Doe" (17 U.S.C. 909) would be properly limited and, under current statutes, legally sufficient notices of copyright and mask work, respectively. Inclusion of a copyright or mask work notice will be permitted only if the authorization language set forth in §1.71(e) is included at the beginning (preferably as the first paragraph) of the specification.<

>(p) Limited use of color drawings in utility patent applications. Paragraph (a) of this section requires that drawings in utility patent applications must be in black on white paper. However, on rare occasion, color drawings may be necessary as the only practical medium by which to disclose the subject matter sought to be patented in a utility patent application. The Patent and Trademark Office will accept color drawings in utility patent applications only after granting of a petition by the applicant under §1.183 of this part which requests waiver of the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section. Any such petition should be directed to the Office of the Deputy Assistant Commissioner for Patents and must include the following:

(1) The appropriate fee set forth in §1.17(h).
(2) Five (5) sets of color drawings on DIN size A4 (21.0 by 29.7 cm.) sheets.
(3) A proposed amendment to insert in the specification the following language as the first paragraph in the portion of the specification relating to the brief description of the drawing:

"The file of this patent contains at least one drawing executed in color. Copies of this patent with color drawing(s) will be provided by the Patent and Trademark Office upon request and payment of the necessary fee."<

9. Section 1.85 is proposed to be revised to read as follows:

§1.85 [Informal] >Corrections to< drawings.

>(a)< The requirements of §1.84 relating to drawings will be strictly enforced. A drawing not executed in conformity thereto, if suitable for reproduction, may be admitted >for examination< but in such case [the drawing must be corrected or] a new [one] >drawing must be< furnished [, as required].

>(b) The Patent and Trademark Office will not release drawings for purposes of correction. If corrections are necessary, new corrected drawings must be submitted within the time set by the Office.<

>(c) When corrected drawings are required to be submitted at the time of allowance, the applicant is required to submit acceptable drawings within three months from the mailing of the "Notice of Allowance". Within that three-month period, two weeks should be allowed for review of the drawings by the Drafting Branch. If the Office finds that correction is necessary, the applicant must submit a new corrected drawing to the Office within the original three-month period to avoid the necessity of obtaining an extension of time and paying the extension fee. Therefore, the applicant should file corrected drawings as soon as possible following the receipt of the Notice of Allowance.<

10. Section 1.152 is proposed to be revised to read as follows:

§1.152 Drawing.

The design must be represented by a drawing made in conformity with the rules laid down for drawings of mechanical inventions and must contain a sufficient number of views to constitute a complete disclosure of the appearance of the article. Appropriate surface shading must be used to show the character or contour of the surfaces represented. >Broken lines may be used to show visible environmental structure, but may not be used to show hidden planes and surfaces which cannot be seen through opaque materials.<

11. Section 1.378 is proposed to be amended by revising paragraphs (b)(1) and (c)(1) to read as follows:

§1.378 Acceptance of delayed payment of maintenance fee in expired patent to reinstate patent.

(1) The required maintenance fee set forth in §1.20[(h)] >(e)< - (j),

(1) The required maintenance fee set forth in §1.20[(h)] >(e)< - (j),

12. Section 1.421 is proposed to be amended by revising paragraph (f) and adding a new paragraph (g) to read as follows:

§1.421 Applicant for international application.

(f) Changes in the person, name, or address of the applicant of an international application shall be made in accordance with PCT Rule [18.5] >92bis<.

(g) The wording of PCT Rule 92bis is as follows:

PCT Rule 92bis - Recording of Changes in Certain Indications in the Request or the Demand

92bis Recording of Changes by the International Bureau

(a) The International Bureau shall, on the request of the applicant or the receiving Office, record changes in the following indications appearing in the request or demand:

(i) person name, residence, nationality or address of the applicant,
(ii) person, name or address of the agent, the common representative or the inventor.

(b) The International Bureau shall not record the requested change if the request for recording is received by it after the expiration:

(i) of the time limit referred to in Article 22(1), where Article 39(1) is not applicable with respect to any Contracting State;
(ii) of the time limit referred to in Article 39(1)(a), where Article 39(1) is applicable with respect to at least one Contracting State.<

13. Section 1.480 is proposed to be amended by revising paragraph (d) to read as follows:

§1.480 Demand for international preliminary examination.

* * * * *

(d) Withdrawal of a proper Demand >prior to the start of the international preliminary examination< will [not] entitle applicant to a refund of the preliminary examination fee [or handling fee] >minus the amount of the transmittal fee set forth in §1.445(a)(1)<.

Reference Collections of U.S. Patents Available for Public Use in Patent Depository Libraries

The following libraries, designated as Patent Depository Libraries (PDLs), receive current issues of U.S. Patents and maintain collections of earlier-issued patents. The scope of these collections varies from library to library, ranging from patents of only recent years to all or most of the patents issued since 1790.

These patent collections, which are organized in patent number sequence, are available for use by the public free of charge. Each of the PDLs, in addition, offers supplemental reference publications of the U.S. Patent Classification System, including the Manual of Classification, Index to the U.S. Patent Classification, Classification Definitions, and provides technical staff assistance in their use to aid the public, in gaining effective access to information contained in patents. CASSIS (Classification And Search Support Information System); which provides direct, on-line access to Patent and Trademark Office data, is available at all PDLs. Facilities for making paper copies of patents from either microfilm or paper collections are generally provided for a fee.

Since there are variations in the scope of patent collections among the PDLs and in their hours of service to the public, anyone contemplating use of the patents at a particular library is advised to contact that library, in advance, about its collection and hours in order to avert possible inconvenience.

MARKS PUBLISHED FOR OPPOSITION

The following marks are published in compliance with section 12(a) of the Trademark Act of 1946. Applications for the registration of marks in more than one class have been filed as provided in section 30 of said act as amended by Public Law 772, 87th Congress, approved Oct. 9, 1962, 76 Stat. 769. Opposition under section 13 may be filed within thirty days of the date of this publication. See rules 2.101 to 2.105.

A separate fee of two hundred dollars for opposing each mark in each class must accompany the opposition.

SECTION 1.—INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFICATION

The short titles associated below with the international class numbers are terms designed merely for quick identification and are not an official part of the international classification. The full names of international classes are given in section 6.1 of the trademark rules of practice.

The designation "U.S. Cl." appearing in this section refers to the U.S. class in effect prior to Sep. 1, 1973 rather than the international class which applies to applications filed on or after that date. For adoption of international classification see notice in the OFFICIAL GAZETTE of Jun. 26, 1973 (911 O.G. TM 210).

SECTION 1.—INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFICATION

The short titles associated below with the international class numbers are terms designed merely for quick identification and are not an official part of the international classification. The full names of international classes are given in section 6.1 of the trademark rules of practice.

The designation "U.S. Cl." appearing in this section refers to the U.S. class in effect prior to Sep. 1, 1973 rather than the international class which applies to applications filed on or after that date. For adoption of international classification see notice in the OFFICIAL GAZETTE of Jun. 26, 1973 (911 O.G. TM 210).
